  - *Matt Hillman added that Brian, a staff member, will be on paternity leave.

4. Board Reports

A. Treasurer's Report. Lynette sent out her report ahead of the meeting. She also sent a report of a forthcoming $2,500 gift from the Rodigrass-Weare Foundation for the internship program. Bill announced that a $5,000 grant from the Stine Foundation was received and other grants are expected. He added that our excellent financial position means that in the coming year we will be able to determine how to best allocate these resources for the benefit of the Refuge. There are currently 266 members.

B. President's Report. The Wed. work group has been busy. Recent projects include:

- *installing planks on the Pines Trail
- *installing markers along the Hellcat Boardwalk
- *Hellcat Trail maintenance

Bill suggested installing a few orientation signs to help visitors understand and use the Hellcat Trail markers. He and Matt Poole will discuss this.

*The slate of Board members for the Annual Meeting election is complete with the addition of Dan Graovac. Dan explained that he is a Plum Island resident, and frequent Refuge visitor. He spoke briefly about his service with the Merrimac Valley Watershed Council. He has served as president of the board.

C. Technology Report. Weston noted that he has updated all plug-ins and apps on the website and has received and put up new content from board members/associates. He encouraged others to submit articles and photos. Doug Chickering will send his annual license plate count.

5. Annual Meeting Planning. The Annual Meeting will be held on Jan. 22 at 10:00 a.m. via Zoom. The program will consist of reports from the president, treasurer, secretary and refuge manager. Bill shared his draft PowerPoint. Ellie and Lynette will send the ballot to members for pre-meeting voting and will tabulate the results.

6. Pines Trail Plank Project. So far $5,100 has been received for memorial planks with 23 planks installed on the Pine Trail boardwalk. Ted will check with Lynette on an invoice from CNC and Bill and Matt H. will discuss ordering more planks. Bill encouraged the Board to spread the word about this on-going project.

7. Winter Birding Challenge. After a brief discussion of proposed changes to the rules and prizes for this event, two subcommittees were formed. Ted and Dan will develop a public relations and marketing strategy that increases and broadens participation. Bill and Dave will finalize the rules/prizes.

8. Friends Articles and Publicity. Board members have submitted pieces to the website (Peg Gould on the Tufted Titmouse and Cheryl Smith on wildflowers) and the "Wrackline." (Bill on Friends' activities and Doug on fall shorebirds.)

9. Educational Program Calendar. Bill reminded Doug to submit a report on his "Pop-up" education programs.

10. Urban Wildlife Conservation Program. Ted Olsson is our point person on this initiative. He has attended a very informative training and will now meet with Matt H. to further discuss this initiative.

11. Confirmation of Next Meeting Dates
