

Could You be an Artist of the Month?

After a two year pause due to COVID precautions, we can again enjoy art exhibits in the Visitor Center's auditorium.

These nature-themed exhibitions have brought great enjoyment to those attending programs at the Parker River National Wildlife Refuge and we look forward to once again connecting nature lovers and artists through monthly exhibits.

The Friends encourages those interested in showing their work to contact us at friends@parkerriver.org for further information.